Elyse Aehele Will Conduct Area Concert

Elyse Aehele will conduct the Civic Symphony of the Southwest and Torrance in the second concert of the season tonight at 8:15 in Redondo High School Auditorium. Soloist will be Robert DeSimone, pianist. He will perform the Rimsky-Korsakov Piano Concerto in C Minor. Musical director of the Cultural Arts Center of Los Angeles, DeSimone is working on a master's degree at USC.

Conductor Aehele has chosen the "Scotch" symphony of Mendelssohn as the program's major work. The Adagio of the symphony is to be dedicated to Mrs. Viola Niland, former secretary of the symphony orchestra board.

The program is sponsored by the Music Commission and the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County, the Music Performance Trust Funds of the Recording Industry, Local 47, A. F. M. and the South Bay Civic Symphony board.

Tickets and further information are available at the symphony office, FR 5-2744.

Three Children's Films Scheduled
